You may be assured that all necessary details will be worked out directly [REDACTED] here and that necessary papers for accreditation will be handled promptly.

For some unknown reason your letter did not arrive in this Office until two days ago but I sincerely hope that [REDACTED] will feel free to contact this Office at his earliest convenience. In any case, we shall be looking forward to a visit from him toward the latter part of the month. Please be assured that this Office and the other Offices within Bob Amory's area are looking forward to having [REDACTED] in Washington. We are convinced that this arrangement will be of increasing benefit to both of our organizations.
